

Allaperto

Ethimo and Matteo Thun + Antonio Rodriguez

A surprising collection, where design meets nature and creativity becomes emotion

Allaperto, one philosophy for four different 'outfits': Montagna, Grand Hotel, Camping Chic and Urban. Different looks, the same essence.

With the Allaperto collection, Ethimo, together with Matteo Thun and Antonio Rodriguez, tells exciting stories, new to outdoor furniture design.

The very name of the collection evokes images of life in the open air and brings to mind new ideas for relaxing in different outdoor contexts.

From total immersion in nature, to the ease of luxury hospitality, through to the pace of metropolitan or 'nomadic' life, the Allaperto collection transforms, experimenting with refined combinations of colours and materials, showing off surprising looks that interpret all its different settings.

The collection comes alive thanks to a 'sign' that defines the four moods. Development of the project concept is based on a linchpin element, the wood structure, treated like a true genetic matrix that 'frames' a variety of extraordinary scenarios.

Allaperto is a dynamic, versatile collection. It adapts like the leading actor to its stage, confirming that sophisticated, elegant allure that only perfect equilibrium of shape, volume, colour and unique details manages to create, a synaesthesia that has always made Ethimo creations stand out.

The pieces in the Allaperto collection create exclusive, exciting layouts, with special attention to enhancement of the relationship with their surroundings, charming locations that are perfect for pure relaxation.

Allaperto is technological innovation, craftsmanship, inventiveness and versatility. A multi-faceted range therefore, which embraces the canons of function, aesthetics and comfort required from outdoor furnishings.

ETHIMO

OUTDOOR DECOR

Creativity draws inspiration from nature. The four different moods are conceived as interpretations of special settings to be customised with different lifestyles.

With their eclectic appearance and multiple identities, these articles form a collection of furnishings that are playful and dynamic in spirit, every day giving new inspiration and free rein to the imagination with the emotion of inimitable settings.

Allaperto takes Ethimo beyond its Mediterranean style, with an increasingly more passionate approach to contemporary design.

Furnishings undergo an ironic change of appearance, preserving the essence of their creators.

Refined furniture that combines style and durability for unique, special outdoor areas that emphasise the 'cosy' mood and sensation felt indoors. Attention to details is here joined by experience, intuition and a desire to create modern solutions that are comfortable and capable of setting new trends in outdoor living, not limited to the needs of today's contract sector.

Ethimo, Matteo Thun and Antonio Rodriguez have therefore generated a new way of interpreting design for outdoors, embracing natural inspiration and metropolitan references.

Montagna

Small dining armchair, lounge armchair and adjustable sun lounger

Allaperto brings us 'bespoke' design elements for relaxing pleasantly in the embrace of nature, each one conceived for the many different aspects and situations found in unique, magical mountain scenery.

In natural and pickled teak, wool and cashmere, these seating solutions can be made extra warm and welcoming with elegant 'sleeping bags' that are easy to slip on and fasten, just like clothes. Armchairs and sun lounger are covered in woven Etwick fibre or techno fabric with a specifically designed tartan pattern to ensure maximum comfort and durability even in the coldest locations.

Grand Hotel

Lounge armchair, small dining armchair and adjustable sun lounger, alcove

Furniture with a metal structure, made from elegant white mahogany with Etwick fibre or two-tone plastic straps, upholstered with comfortable cushions in a waterproof, classic-style fabric, ideal for use in the most prestigious, exclusive hospitality locations.

Whether it is a terrace, a garden, an outdoor lounge area or a pool zone, the contemporary luxury of Grand Hotel solutions is perfect for recreating pleasant, elegant oases of wellbeing.

Camping Chic

Lounge armchair, small dining armchair and adjustable sun lounger

Furnishings with a fresh, lively look that recreate the carefree mood of camping in the sixties, but with refined details and all the comfort of contemporary design.

The metal structure teams with mahogany and a plastic fibre cord in brilliant colours, defining the shape of the pieces and ensuring perfect ergonomics. The expressiveness of this material highlights the sophisticated simplicity of Camping Chic furnishings, which merge innovative solutions with ambitious, original style choices. The line is completed by original bouncy self-inflating mattresses that act as comfortable, unusual cushions on the chairs and lounger.

Urban

Lounge armchair, small dining armchair and adjustable sun lounger

Contemporary taste and metropolitan moods. Urban furnishings find expression in their essential, minimal yet refined and flexible style, which allows them to bring alive modern, dynamic settings with an international feel. Metal, pickled teak, weaves and fabrics create combinations that are both practical and aesthetically intriguing. Urban solutions are therefore perfect for customising the outdoor areas of the best design hotels and lounge zones for contract
